

The radio station KLOVE is a valuable resource besides being an important station in our community. The station offers a 24 hour help line for anyone in need of emotional support. Who knows how many suicides this resource has prevented. We need some positive messages out there to hear for all ages, and especially for our young people. Thank you so much.